

ALL-ACCESS PASS PROGRAM 2025-2026 SCHOOL PARTICIPATION DETAILS

The Fox Theatre All-Access Pass offers high school performing arts students exclusive access to the Fox Theatre and other local community theaters. Designed to inspire and empower students in theatre, music, dance, and the performing arts, this program connects them with transformative opportunities that spark curiosity, foster creativity, and encourage career exploration. Our mission is to create a welcoming space where students not only see themselves in the arts but also know that the Fox Theatre is invested in their future.

Eligibility requirements include:

- A public, Title I high school
- The high school must be within 150 miles of the Fox Theatre in Atlanta
- The high school has a performing arts program (Theatre, Chorus, Band, Orchestra, or Dance)
- The high school is located in a county where one or more Fox Gives programs have been shared, including Georgia Presenters, Fox in a Box, and/or a Single-Year or Multiyear Grant award
- Group participation may have 25 students minimum and 30 students maximum
- Students must be high school Juniors and Seniors who have a passion for diving deeper into vocational opportunities within the performing arts
- The school and students should be connected to their community, with a focus of volunteering and preserving their community theatres
- Most of the students have a potential interest for further study in the performing arts post high school including college, university and technical school

Program Benefits Performing arts students at four participating high schools will receive:

- 1) Opportunity to see one complimentary ticketed Broadway performance at the Fox Theatre per academic year with a transportation stipend and meal included
- 2) A vocational-focused interactive presentation that enhances students' understanding of opportunities in the performing arts sector, as well as potentially television and film, while deepening their connection to the history and programming of the Fox Theatre
- 3) A collaboration with a local community theatre to engage in a behind-the-scenes technical experience
- 4) Fox Theatre staff support theatre students to engage with their local community theatre
- 5) A pre- and post-show, in-person site visit at each participating high school with Fox Theatre's Education Manager to enhance relationships with the Fox Theatre
- 6) A curated pre-show talkback onsite at the Fox Theatre with performing arts or theatre professionals to discuss vocational paths within the industry
- 7) Participation in our All-Access Shadowing Program
